

What is asthma?

Asthma is a disease of the lungs that can make it hard to breathe. Here is what happens in the lungs during an asthma attack (exacerbation) or when your child's asthma flares:

