

You can control asthma

- Avoid known triggers
- When exposed to a trigger, get away from the trigger as quickly as possible
- Watch your child take his or her medications
- Use the peak-flow meter
- Follow your child's asthma treatment plan
- Come for all appointments
- Call your doctor/provider as soon as your child develops a cold or has any changes in his or her asthma

